

Flood Recovery

Legal Help Hotline:

1-877-331-4259

The legal and administrative issues created in the wake of a disaster are numerous, and resolving them is critical to helping victims fully restore their lives and property. Legal Aid is here to provide FREE information, assistance, and advice for flood victims.

Here are some things we can help with:

- Filing insurance claims
- Dealing with contracts for repairs
- Problems with mortgage companies and damaged homes
- Replacing important legal documents
- Problems with landlords of damaged rental housing
- Contesting insurance claim denials

More legal information related to natural disasters can be found on our website at:

www.lawv.net/Resources/Self-Help-Library/Disaster-Recovery

About Us:

Legal Aid of West Virginia is a statewide nonprofit organization providing free assistance to low-income and vulnerable people with noncriminal legal issues that affect areas of basic need such as safety, housing, and access to income, benefits, education and healthcare.