

DO YOU HAVE A GUARDIAN?

It is very likely that you still have the RIGHT TO VOTE.

West Virginia law allows protected persons to vote
unless their right to vote has been explicitly taken away in a guardianship order, or a court of competency has deemed the protected person
"mentally incompetent."

WV CODE § 3-2-2 (b).

ELIGIBILITY TO REGISTER TO VOTE.

"... Any person who has been declared mentally incompetent by a court of competent jurisdiction is disqualified and shall not be eligible to register or to continue to be registered to vote for as long as that disability continues."

Having a "mental impairment" is not the same as being "mentally incompetent." A person can be mentally impaired and still have the right to vote.
