Job Matching: Helps determine what type of work the individual is best suited for depending on interests, skills, and abilities. On Site Job Coaching: The individual will be assigned a Job Coach that will remain on the work site until he / she is working independently. Follow Along Services: Once the individual reaches independence at the work site, The Arc will continue to check on the individual each month until services are not needed anymore. Post Placement: If the individual needs assistance with learning new skills on the job, The Arc will assist.
