

WV Paths for Parents (P4P) Presents:

Parent Connect Meetings in Logan County!

A new, in-person support group for parents and caregivers of children with disabilities and special health care needs is coming to Logan County!

Starting Wednesday, June 24, 2026 at 2:00 p.m., join us at the Logan County Family Support Center in Logan, WV for our very first Parent Connect Meeting. These informal meetings will be a warm, welcoming space created by parents, for parents. Meetings will continue monthly on the 4th Wednesday of each month to talk, laugh, learn, and support one another.

About P4P Parent Connect Meetings:

Parent Connect Meetings are led by the Paths for Parents program at the WVU Center for Excellence in Disabilities. We're committed to providing a friendly, judgment-free space where parents and caregivers can connect, share, and grow.

Why join us?

Parenting a child with special health care needs or disabilities is filled with unique joys and challenges, and you don't have to do it alone. Our meetings offer:

- A welcoming community of parents and caregivers who "get it."
- Real conversations about everyday challenges and successes.
- Connections and networking with others who share similar experiences.
- Information on local supports, services, and opportunities for your family.

Whether you're seeking support, ideas, connection, or encouragement, you belong here.

Join us!

When: 4th Wednesday of each month at 2:00 p.m.

Where: Logan County Family Support Center
214 Dingess Street
Logan, WV 25601
